Loving Parent God, we honor and praise you.
Forgive us for the many times we cannot see and feel.
When we close our eyes in prayer,
help us open them again to see the many injustices around us.
Every time we raise our hands in praise to God, help us stretch them out to help those who are in need.
Every time we kneel in prayer, help us stand again with our siblings in struggle; help us stand in solidarity with them.
Make us bold in asking, thankful in receiving, tireless in seeking, and joy-filled in finding your direction as we do your will on earth as it is in heaven. Amen

Take the fruits that I have gathered from the tree your Spirit sowed, Tang of risk and new adventure, taset and zest beyond belief.

to love the being of the unloved,
Our gifts are gifts of hope; O God, touch, reach, heal, feed, accept, and love us,
So that we might love one another. Amen

YFC UCC Community Lenten/Easter Discernment Gatherings
God is still speaking in this time. It is up to us to listen.
Pastor Liz invites all to attend a series of 7-Week Community Lenten/Easter Discernment Gatherings to listen for who the Spirit is calling us to be--and the ministry we are being called to do—as we serve together in covenant relationship following the Way of Jesus.

Cliff Notes Version:

This week's Community Discernment Gatherings are scheduled for:

- Today: Sunday, May 1--Sidetracks in Ypsilanti from 12:00 noon to 1:30 pm in the private dining room (near the back porch) 52 E Cross Street, Ypsilanti, MI 48198. https://www.sidetrackbarandgrill.com/
- Tuesday, May 3 –Zoom Only from 6:00 pm to 7:00 pm using the church zoom meeting number.
- We will be covering Chapter 5 (Pg 93-112): "Shaping Institutional Memory: Tell Me Our Story" from Susan Beaumont's How to Lead When You Don't Know Where You're Going: Leading in a Liminal Season.

Additional Background Information:

These Community Lenten/Easter Discernment Gatherings are being held each week. The last gathering will occur on May 10th. We will be discussing the small, but powerful book selected by the UCC MI Conference Vital Growth Mission Area Team for the recent 2022 Vitality Day attended by Pastor Liz: How to Lead When You Don't Know Where You're Going: Leading in a Liminal Season by inter-denominational faith-based consultant, coach and spiritual director Susan Beaumont.

Since adult learners have different learning styles, some folks may prefer to participate in the gatherings, but not read the book. This is fine. The print font size in the book is small. Some folks have found the Kindle version helpful because font size can be enlarged. For those who want to read the book but find themselves crunched for time: scanning the headings, visuals, and bullet points will be helpful preparation.

Whatever individual means of preparation works best, our community discernment and learning process will be enhanced the more folks attend the gatherings each week. Folks who read and reflect on each chapter prior to attending the gatherings will enhance the depth and quality of our conversation and our community discernment process.

If you would like the church to purchase a book for you, please let Donna know and she will order a copy (deyster63@gmail.com). If you purchase the Kindle version, please let Donna know and she can reimburse you. Or, if you prefer to purchase your own book to reduce the church's annual operating expenses, please do so.

To provide as many opportunities for folks to participate in this community transforming work as possible—and realizing that compromises will always need to be made—each week Pastor Liz will host two gatherings to do this important work. Please attend the one that best fits your busy schedule. If you miss the gathering you usually attend, please attend a different gathering held that week covering the same material. If schedules allow, Pastor Liz invites folks to attend both gatherings during the week in order to support the cross-pollination of discernment insights between both gatherings.

Participants are encouraged to follow their conscience in relation to their unique health risk status when deciding which gatherings to attend and whether to wear a mask. The Sunday in-person gathering includes the option to purchase food and/or beverages and share in-person friendship time.

Thank you for gifting our church with your spiritual gifts, life energy and time during this Lenten/Easter season of our lives together.

OUR CHURCH'S MISSIONS

The Beacon Center is the newest community social justice of the Ypsilanti First Congregational UCC. As a light to all persons, the Beacon Center's ministry will support the spiritual formation, creative expression, overall thriving and advocacy of at-risk students of all ages, including those affiliated with three primary local institutions of higher learning: Eastern Michigan University, Washtenaw Community College and University of Michigan. In the Spirit of the UCC moto, "That They All Shall Be One", Beacon Center serves as a uniting and unifying umbrella across our congregation serving persons sources through our three other community social justice ministry networks. Those ministries (each detailed below) include WICIR (Washtenaw Interfaith Coalition for Immigrant Rights) serving the immigrant communities, MI-ONA (Michigan Open and Affirming Coalition) serving LGTBQ+ persons, and WeROC (Washtenaw Regional Organizing Coalition) which brings together faith, labor and community organizations to address local issues.

The Beacon Center is committed to advocate for self-determination and education for all people, especially students living in poverty, persons of color experiencing racism, and other de-humanizing circumstances and conditions. Beacon Center's student demographics include persons of color, immigrants, minorities, LGTBQ+ folk, women, those with special needs, the economically disadvantaged, those facing housing insecurity, the financially challenged, and the working poor. For additional information on the Beacon Center, please contact Rev. Liz Larrivee at lizlarrivee@gmail.com

IMMIGRATION MINISTRY – WASHTENAW INTERFAITH COALITION FOR IMMIGRANT RIGHTS (WICIR)

Since 2008, WICIR has been working with, and in support of, immigrants in Washtenaw County facing challenges of many kinds. At our inception the primary need that brought us together was to support people facing enforcement action by ICE (Immigration and Customs Enforcement); most often detention, deportation, and removal. To date, WICIR has responded to 650 calls. Always in partnership with folks most affected, many actions and services have evolved as identified by our immigrant siblings, while always keeping focused on our original mission:

To provide culturally sensitive and supportive urgent response to those in Washtenaw County in immigration-related crises; impact local governmental policies to empower and protect immigrant community members; and work toward humane national immigration reform.

Our outreach has been significantly impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. Many in immigrant communities have experienced significant challenges as they struggle to pay rent, provide food for their families and other basic survival needs. To respond, WICIR, in partnership with Mexiquenses in Michigan (from St. Francis of Assisi Parish), has raised and distributed $200,000 relief funds to immigrants and their families. We have a waiting list of those still in need and will continue this effort as funds are available.

For information about what's happening with immigrant rights and Washtenaw Interfaith Coalition for Immigrant Rights, or if you are interested in learning ways to help, please contact Melanie Harner at melharner@gmail.com or through the WICIR website: https://wicir.org/. You can also find a link on the church website.

WASHTENAW REGIONAL ORGANIZING COALITION

First Congregational is a founding institution of the local "organization of organizations" WeROC (Washtenaw Regional Organizing Coalition). In many ways, WeROC is a larger illustration of the values and mission we try to live out at First Congregational. WeROC members are, at our core, focused on intentionally re-weaving the frayed fabric of community at a time when forces are at work every day to keep us fragmented, suspicious of each other, feeling isolated. Especially in this time when so many are being hit by the health and economic crises, WeROC's focus on raising voices of those most affected is more important than ever (See COVID-19 Resources at www.werocmi.org) WeROC's Mission Statement is:

WeROC brings together faith, labor, community organizations, and individuals to build the healthy collective power needed to break down the systems that sustain injustice, racism, and economic inequality.

WeROC is affiliated with the Detroit Metro organization MOSES and the Gamliel National Network. Contact Tad Wysor at tadwysor@gmail.com or 734-883-3225.

This past election year showed us good things can happen when we're working together in the same direction. WeROC is moving rapidly forward to keep momentum going and find ways to continue to be more effective together in making our communities healthier and more vibrant places; improving the lives of everyone in big ways-- especially those who are most vulnerable and whose voice have seldom been heard.

This anonymous folk hymn, with its modal (dorian) tune, has appeared in many versions. William Walker, compiler of Southern Harmony, one of the most important nineteenth-century tune books in the United States, lived and died in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Listen to Your Savior Call

This ancient French tune, Orientis Partibus, is believed to have been written by Pierre de Corbeil (d.1221). The words Orientis Partibus translates to from the Eastern regions the donkey is now come", and was sung at the Feast of the Circumcision; the festival that celebrates the donkey that carried Mary on the flight to Egypt.

Listen to Your Savior Call 250

William Cowper, 1768; alt. John 21:15–16

1 Lis - ten to your Sav - ior call, "Do you love me most of all?"
2 "I de - liv-ered you when bound, and, when bleed-ing, healed your wound.
3 "Mine is an un - chang-ing love, high - er than the heights a - bove,
4 O my Sav-ior, hear my need: though my love is faint in - deed,
Je - sus speaks, and speaks to you: "Love me as I first loved you."
Sought you wan - dering, set you right, for your path-way gave you light."
Deep - er than the depths be - neath, free and faith-ful, strong as death."
Still I love you and a - dore— oh, for grace to love you more!

William Cowper was trained as a barrister. He suffered from severe depression, but during a time of wellness he wrote this hymn based on John 21:15—a dialogue between Jesus and the individual.

Tune: ORIENTIS PARTIBUS 7.7.7.7.
French melody, early 13th century

2 Christ is a - ble to make us one, at his ta - ble he set the tone,
3 Je - sus calls us in, sends us out bear - ing fruit in a world of doubt,

Refrain (first time p, second time f)

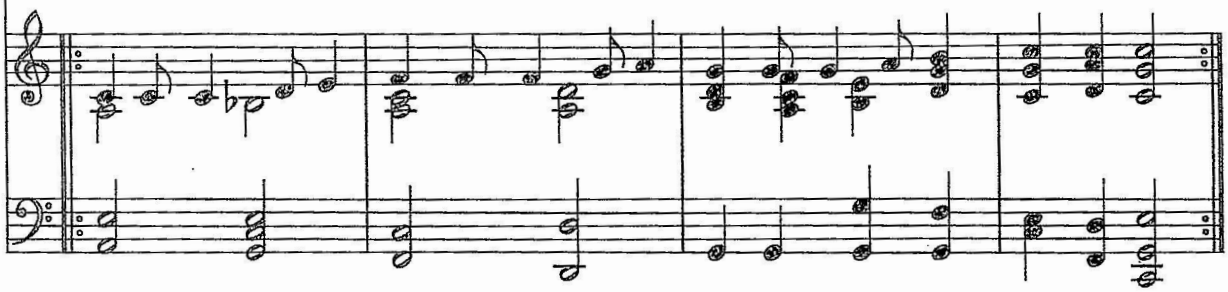
Je-sus lives a-gain, earth can breathe a-gain, pass the Word a-round: loaves a-bound!



This hymn came into being when composer Doreen Potter asked poet Fred Kaan to write a text for her adaptation of a Jamaican folk melody. It was first used at the World Council of Churches Assembly in Nairobi (1975), and in Vancouver (1983).
